Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.:

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of June 30, 2007, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the fiscal year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. management. My responsibility is to express an opinion of these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. and the results of operations and its cash flows for the fiscal year then ended June 30, 2007, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, I have also issued my report dated December 14, 2007, on my consideration of Jefferson Youth Foundation's internal control over financial reporting and on my tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of my testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards, and should be considered in assessing the results of my audit.

My audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. taken as a whole. The schedule of functional expenses is presented on page 9 for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements of the organization. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in my opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2007

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Principles

General - Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit agency with a mission to provide students with educational, tutorial, cultural and health activities. The agency is committed to assisting local educational institutions in increasing overall academic performance for its program participants. The services are provided through the Advent Program, which is an after school program and summer camp.

Basis of Accounting -- Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.'s financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, whereby revenue is recorded when earned and expenses are recorded when incurred.

Property and Equipment -- Improvements which significantly extend the useful life of an asset and purchases of equipment are capitalized. The straight line method of depreciation is used for the assets owned by Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. The estimated useful lives of these assets range from 3 to 40 years.

Income Taxes -- Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. has been determined to be tax exempt under Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes is made in the accompanying financial statements.

Cash - Cash is comprised of cash on hand and in banks.

2. Net Assets

A description of the three types of Net Assets categories is described below:

Unrestricted net assets are comprised of funds without donor-imposed restrictions. The revenues received by Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. and expenses incurred are included in this category.

Temporarily restricted net assets include income, gifts, and contributions which have temporary restrictions that have not been met.

Permanently restricted net assets include income, gifts, and contributions which have donor-imposed restrictions to be invested in perpetuity and only the income from those investments can be made available for program operations.

As of June 30, 2007, Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. had unrestricted net assets, however there were no temporarily or permanently restricted net assets.

3. Grants Receivable

REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Trustees of
Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.

I have audited the financial statements of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2007, and have issued my report thereon dated December 14, 2007. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing my audit, I considered Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing my opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Jefferson Youth Foundation's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, I do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the organization's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the organization's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the organization's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the organization's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. I did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that I consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Jefferson Youth Foundation's financial statements are free of material misstatement, I performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of my audit, and accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. The results of my tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

I noted certain matters that I reported to management of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. in a separate letter dated December 14, 2007.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, State of Louisiana Legislative Auditor, Board of Trustees, and federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

December 14, 2007

To the Senior Management and
The Board of Directors of
Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.

In planning and performing my audit of the financial statements of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc. for the year ended June 30, 2007, I considered the agency's internal control in order to determine my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

However, during my audit, I became aware of several matters that are opportunities for strengthening internal controls and operating efficiency. This letter does not affect my report dated December 14, 2007, on the financial statements of Jefferson Youth Foundation, Inc.

I will review the status of these comments during my next audit engagement. I will be pleased to discuss these comments in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations. My comments are summarized as follows:

Organizational Structure

The size of the agency's accounting and administrative staff precludes certain internal controls that would be preferred if the office staff were large enough to provide optimum segregation of duties. This situation dictates that the Board of Directors remain involved in the financial affairs of the agency to provide oversight and independent review functions.

Operational Budget

Although it was noted that the agency has formulated budgets for individual funding sources, there should be an overall operational budget. An overall operational budget will be critical in planning for the repayment of outstanding debt and maintaining current operations.

Monthly Financial Reporting

Financial statements were made available for audit, however, there were no monthly financial statements made available throughout the year. Financial statements including bank reconciliations should be performed on a monthly basis which would assist in having timely audits performed. Timely financial reporting is also critical in managing and maintaining accountability at the agency.

I wish to thank the Executive Director and her staff for their support and assistance during my audit.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, and others within the organization and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
